

Conference on Temporary Migrant Workers

Labour Rights and Organizing Strategies

October 8 & 9, 2015
SFU Harbour Centre
Vancouver, BC

organized in support of The Labour Studies Program at Simon Fraser University

In Canada, and around the world, temporary migrant workers are increasingly being used for seasonal and permanent jobs. Their rights and legal protection, however, are highly circumscribed, their employment is insecure, and abuse of the temporary foreign worker programs by employers and some governments is widespread. Their rights, moreover, to a healthy, safe workplace are non-existent or greatly inferior to Canadian norms.

This two-day conference will be of interest to all those working on the issue of temporary foreign workers, especially union and community organizers already engaged in or needing to find out more about these programs.
